

NOTES

RECOMMENDED INTERNET RESOURCES: ENVIRONMENT, SCIENCE & NATURE

Lewis Yeager, Research Officer

Introduction

This is a list of some of the best Internet sites to obtain sound, current information about practical science and the natural environment. I have reviewed many hundreds of web sites and selected those which are the most interesting and comprehensive. Their titles are self-explanatory, and they have been categorized to be useful to legislators and to parents, teachers, students and the curious who come to them for information.
